Loving God,

For all who feel on the margins,

But who are at the center of your heart,

We ask you to open our hearts.

Help us to become a church and a nation where:

All lives have dignity,

All people are loved,

And all are welcome!

Amen

Parishioner Spotlights

Our parish community rejoices with parishioner Cindy Lis, who received the Sacrament of Confirmation at the Easter Vigil this past weekend. In the light of the Risen Christ, Cindy was sealed with the Holy Spirit and embraced more deeply into the life of the Church.

Cindy, may this new chapter in your spiritual journey be filled with grace, courage, and a deepening relationship with God. We pray that the Holy Spirit continues to guide, strengthen, and inspire you on the journey of faith!

Coordinator's Corner

First, I would like to thank all who made our Triduum and Easter Sunday liturgies so beautiful. Our staff and volunteers worked very hard to plan and organize the events of the week, and I hope you were able to celebrate the Resurrection with joy because of their efforts.

I was most grateful for the wonderful attendance we had, especially on Sunday morning. As I've mentioned before, without an assembly gathered, liturgy is rather lifeless. Thank you to all who made the celebrations of Holy Thursday, Good Friday, and the Easter Vigil part of their devotion. I was touched by so many moments during those three nights - the washing of the feet, the procession with the Eucharist, the Passion of John, the Exsultet, and the Confirmation of our parishioner, Cynthia Lis. Having Cynthia with us at the Easter Vigil was a tremendous blessing! Again, thank you, everyone, for adding your time, talent and presence to our celebrations.

Second, the death of Pope Francis ends a remarkable pontificate. As the church and world mourns, it is right for the faithful to remember him with love and to pray for a worthy successor. Francis imagined a church where the poor and marginalized experienced love and acceptance, a church that saw herself as a champion of the oppressed. He preached the truth that all people are beautiful sons & daughters of God, and the church he envisioned is the church we strive to be at St. Augustine. The humility and warmth of Pope Francis breathed new life into the church; he will be greatly missed.

MAY THE SOULS of
the FAITHFUL DEPARTED,
THROUGH the MERCY of GOD, REST IN PEACE.

1936 - 2025

CSP

With deep sorrow and gratitude for his life of service, we share the news of the passing of Pope Francis.

In this time of mourning, we entrust his soul to the loving embrace of God and invite all to join in prayer for the repose of his soul and for the Church in this time of transition.

The College of Cardinals will now gather in a conclave to discern and elect the 266th successor to Saint Peter.

As we await the guidance of the Holy Spirit, we pray for unity and peace in the Church and for the Cardinals entrusted with this sacred task.

"Eternal rest grant unto him, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon him. May he rest in peace.
Amen."
